Magic Eye

Goodiepal, Luke McCreddie, Plastique Fantastique, Ayo and Oni Oshodi, Raymond Queneau, Paul Sharits, Alexander Stevenson, Jennet Thomas

Je cherche en même temps l'éternel et l'éphémère.

Seeking the eternal and the ephemeral in the nonsensical, abstract and mythical, Grand Union presents Magic Eye: a group exhibition activated by a festival.

Magic Eye is proactive and progressive, self consciously reaching for the transcendental. Magic Eye does not seek to answer or explain. Magic Eye seeks without hoping to find.

Magic Eye carries over the error. Magic Eye is a misinterpretation leading to further misinterpretation. Magic Eye is cast into shadow as much as it is illuminated. Magic eye is written in a language you don't understand. Magic Eye is looking forwards and backwards at the same time.

13 July until 10 August 2013
Open Thursday to Saturday 12–5pm

Saturday 27 July 12–6pm

Unit 2 Minerva Works part of Warwick Bar Summer Fete

Artists Ayo & Oni Oshodi launch the latest edition of their zine: Slain by the Cruel Blade of Post-Modernity: Rituals. In keeping with their enigmatic appearances, the publication is a playfully cryptic assembly of autobiographical references and appropriated material. Each copy includes a handwritten password, which allows access to their site-specific installation in Minerva works, details of which will only be revealed to those who gain access on the day.
